2018 SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Wednesday, August 8, 7:30 pm

MARK RAMPMEYER, Goodspeed Opera House Costume Rental Manager, will talk about their upcoming fall performance of "The Drowsy Chaperone," opening on September 21. He will discuss the play, its history, and will bring costumes from the play.

Goodspeed Musicals Costume Rental is hidden away in the woods of East Haddam at the Cynthia Kellogg Barrington Costume Center, an environmentally-controlled, 14,000-square-foot, two-story warehouse that contains a collection of over 230,000 theatrical costumes plus another 20,000 accessory articles including shoes, hats, and purses.

Wednesday, September 12, 7:30pm

GEORGE FELLNER, Architect and Photographer, will be presenting "The Multiplicity of a CT River Town" ~ Local historical houses and restoration.

Wednesday, October 10, 7:30pm

JERRY ROBERTS, Executive Director of the New England Air Museum, Windsor Locks, will be presenting a program on early aviation in CT from 1850 to the Space Age, including amazing characters from the early days.

Wednesday, November 14, 7:30pm

DR. KARL STOFKO will be presenting another amazing and witty program on "Mysteries of East Haddam."

Wednesday, December 12, 6 pm
