

East Haddam Historical Society
Presents
'Tuesdays at 2'
264 Town St, East Haddam, CT

Birds of Prey

Tuesday, July 11, 2023, 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

A Place Called Hope (APCH) in Killingworth, CT, is a rehabilitation center for sick or injured birds of prey. APCH will bring raptors to this outdoor presentation. Audiences will meet raptors: two day time hunters and two night time hunters. You will learn each bird's story of survival and ways to lessen conflicts with the wildlife in your very own backyard.

Bees!

Tuesday, July 18, 2023, 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Ali Durham is an "apiarist", also known as a beekeeper. Ali will share how and why she became a beekeeper, and will provide information about how to take care of bees. She'll share interesting history about bees along the way!

Mr. Magic

Tuesday, July 25, 2023, 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Mr. Magic has been mystifying audiences for 50 years! He'll be entertaining our guests at the Museum with his marvelous feats of magic, and involves the audience in most of his tricks!

For Goodness Snakes!

Tuesday, August 1, 2023, 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Meet the snakes of East Haddam! Learn what is special about each of our 14 species of snakes, including their habitats and natural history. Live snakes, of course! The program will be presented by a Ranger from Meigs Point Nature Center.

Archaeological Dig of the Dill Farm

Tuesday, August 8, 2023, 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Oscar Dill will talk about the archaeological dig that took place on the 350-acre Dill farm, which may be 10,000 years old and the oldest inhabited site in CT. He will present many of the archaeological finds and talk about the first people that might have lived there.

These presentations are supported by the CT Humanities' Summer at the Museum Program. For information call 860-873-3944 or email museum@easthaddamhistory.org.